

1. South Anchorage High School has the largest student activities participation rate per capita in the Anchorage School District;
 - a. Over $\frac{3}{4}$ of South Anchorage High School students participated in a fall sport.
 - b. South Anchorage High School has one of the largest dance participation rates in the district.
 - c. Over of South's students are participating in a spring sport this spring.
2. Student Government is the largest representation of the student voice in the school
 - a. The main representations of student voice are Student Government, Peer Mentorship, NHS, and Key Club. Of all these groups, Student Government is the largest group of students giving back to the school and communicating with our administration the most.
3. historically, Student Government has been a class during the school day for the entirety of the school's twenty-year history
4. Student Government has a vital role in building a positive school community and excitement in the student body
 - a. Student Government puts on almost all of our school-wide events. These include Dances, Assemblies, Spirit weeks, etc.
 - b. Student Government organizes student sections and game themes to promote attendance at various sporting events and show positive school spirit and support.
 - c. Student Government makes sure to reflect and include all students at South groups, which helps build community and involvement.
5. having

